Providing a united platform to address global challenges in pediatric imaging

Small World – the WFPI Newsletter

Volume 4, Issue 2, May 2015

“One doesn’t discover new lands without consenting to lose sight, for a very long time, of the shore.” (André Gide)

Prof. Ines Boechat and her fellow WFPI founders launched this new global platform 4 years ago. Is the shore now in sight? Find out for yourself at WFPI’s

Annual Member’s Meeting

Zoom in with us on our successes and struggles, areas of strong interest and growth: ultrasound in lower resource settings, tele-reading, online education (website, case of the week, online videos) & WFPI’s growing reach via social media – don’t you agree that this a vital tool for a young global organization like ours today?

We will also be inviting the leaders of all our member organizations to join us at 11-12 noon the same day to explore the different aspects of their membership. Invites and agenda out soon.

Apps, e-books & more

We aim to update our education pages on www.wfpiweb.org regularly, with an emphasis on content available for free.

We are on the lookout for such content or we are contacted to post it. Do you have publications or tools worth sharing?

Let us know.

Recent additions to our growing collection include pedsmri, an MRI protocol app from Toronto’s Hospital for Sick Children for Android & iOS and a free e-book on skeletal dysplasias (Parnell/Richardson).

next week. Hear how it goes during our Annual Meeting, June 5th; follow the news on our website & Facebook

Another platform to track: our WFPI/SPR online video library. See new clips on Necrotizing Enterocolitis, Genitourinary Trauma in Children and a “how to” guide to creating these videos. Regional ambassadors will be on the move in the search for new content. Click here, join us on YouTube.

Sharing live

SPR opened up its post-graduate course to live web streaming free of charge outside North America. Online attendees tuned in to a sensational series of talks AND parallel streaming via Twitter, generated by both delegates and organizers alike. We loved it! Thank you SPR.
